Text: | Malachai 3: 1-4 |

1 "Look! I am sending my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me.

2 "But who will be able to endure it when he comes? Who will be able to stand and face him when he appears? For he will be like a blazing fire that refines metal, or like a strong soap that bleaches clothes.

3 He will sit like a refiner of silver, burning away the dross. He will purify the Levites, refining them like gold and silver, so that they may once again offer acceptable sacrifices to the Lord

People - Interpersonal	arrival of the messenger or authority figure	• what types of responses might that arrival elicit? • depends on who shows up • Ed McMahon introducing Johnny	right at start of service, "Bob" enters and places a glass of water on the pulpit. Then marks the readings in the Bible. Then places the pastor's stole on the chair, etc.
Self - Intrapersonal	• who will be able to endure? • who will be able to stand?	• a military family waiting for loved one's return • purification is not fun but is necessary in order to be the best material God can use
