Episode: CAdv3x2015

Text: Isaiah 12:2-6

Surely God is my salvation;

I will trust, and will not be afraid,

for the LORD GOD is my strength and my might;

he has become my salvation.

With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

And you will say in that day:

Give thanks to the LORD,

call on his name;

make known his deeds among the nations;

proclaim that his name is exalted.

Sing praises to the LORD, for he has done gloriously;

let this be known in all the earth.

Shout aloud and sing for joy, O royal Zion, for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Word - Verbal/Linguistic	say in that day... call on his name... proclaim... Sing praises... Shout aloud... sing for joy
Eye - Visual/Spatial
Math - Logical/Mathematical	draw water from the wells of salvation	How would you engineer the wells of salvation? (clearly we don't -- God does. but still...) Perhaps some thought to how a well is dug, then making analogy to spiritual life. Is that vague enough?	do you have any engineers who could speak to this? Invite them in! If it is too much to have them in the sermon, set up a demonstration/lecture afterwards to go with your clean water initiatives... see also Luke
Body - Kinesthetic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> draw water from the wells of salvation; Lord God is my strength and my might 	images of how good water can be on a hot day
Musical	Sing praises to the Lord,... sing for joy...	use the lyrics to Joy to the World - how the entire creation is singing for joy or Hark the Herald Angels sing - joyful all ye nations rise	use a refrain from a song of joy (your pick!) for your service music
