Text: Psalm 29

- 1 Ascribe to the Lord, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.
- 2 Ascribe to the Lord the glory of his name; worship the Lord in holy splendor.
- 3 The voice of the Lord is over the waters; the God of glory thunders, the Lord, over mighty waters.
- 4 The voice of the Lord is powerful; the voice of the Lord is full of majesty.
- 5 The voice of the Lord breaks the cedars; the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon.
- 6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf, and Sirion like a young wild ox.
- 7 The voice of the Lord flashes forth flames of fire.
- 8 The voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness; the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- 9 The voice of the Lord causes the oaks to whirl, and strips the forest bare; and in his temple all say, "Glory!"
- 10 The Lord sits enthroned over the flood; the Lord sits enthroned as king forever.

Word - Verbal/Linguistic		*poetry slam on Queen Latifa's show - resources as a way of demonstrating a powerful presentation	take the time to consider HOW to read this psalm  If you have time, you could find a couple volunteers to present this as a choral reading  If you do NOT have time, divide this up as a responsive reading with the congregation
Eye - Visual/Spatial	verses, 6-9 - galumphing animals, shooting flames, earthquakes, whirlwinds -	the voice of God has such energy the world can't hold still	put together a slide show of storms, running animals, trees/plants moving in wind, lightning - show this before the service starts  get the idea of God's power into folks' imaginations before you even say a word!

Math - Logical/Mathematical
Body - Kinesthetic		Driving power of God's voice/word - maybe like a coach who is motivating you to push hard in a workout or play smarter in a game ...
Musical
Natural	The voice of the Lord breaks the cedars; the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon.	...thunderstorms...  immense power in nature - can be devastating. God speaks a word and the same kind of power is shown	[see word]
People - Interpersonal		the psalmist imagines that the response to this power is praise - is that the first response we have to earthquakes and floods?	Share a time when you were able to praise God - say "glory!" - when you saw the power of God
Self - Intrapersonal		see people	consider difficulties/storms happening in your life now or recently. is it possible to "see" God in those times? Is it possible to be able to say "glory"?
