

More Than Hearing Worksheet

Episode: C Trinity x 2016

Text: John 16:12-15

12 “I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. 13 When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. 14 He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. 15 All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.

Math - Logical/Mathematical	Jesus speaking About the Spirit Revealing the Father	The rule of three is a principle that suggests that things that come in threes are inherently funnier, more satisfying, or more effective than other numbers of things. Audiences and readers are more likely to consume information presented in threes.  One of the best examples of the power of the rule of three is in comedy,	We read The Three Little Pigs , Three Billy Goats Gruff , Goldilocks and the Three Bears before we eat breakfast, lunch, and dinner, with a knife, fork, and spoon. We hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil despite the fact that we are threatened by lions, tigers, and bears. We play rock, paper, scissors, and we enter into life lock, stock, and barrel. Our goals are life,

		where it is also called a comic triple. Comedians exploit the way people's minds perceive expected patterns to throw the audience off track (and make them laugh) with the third element. Dick van Dyke Show http://allthetropes.wikia.com/wiki/The_Triple	liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, and we count on the judicial, legislative, and executive branches of government to assist us in this pursuit, yesterday, today, and tomorrow, because we cherish our government of the people, by the people, and for the people. We live a hop, skip, and a jump from snap, crackle, and pop. Our journey of life has a beginning, a middle, and an end. On the journey we encounter lights that may be red, yellow, or green. Our motto, for the past, the present, and the future is Ready, Set, Go! Just do it! The poet Robert Frost said it this way: "In three words I can sum up everything I've learned about life: 'It goes on.'" ~Alyce McKenzie, Edgy Exegesis, The Power of Three http://www.patheos.com/Progressive-Christian/Power-Three-Alyce-McKenzie-05-21-2013?offset=1&amp;max=1

Self - Intrapersonal		Where does truth exist? Is it interior or exterior to a person? Or both? Article [D. Mark Davis, Left Behind and Loving It] - Gospel of Thomas says truth comes from within. John says truth comes from Christ revealed by the Spirit to those who believe.	Which are you more likely to trust, your own intuition about truth or the Holy Spirit revealing and Jesus bearing witness to truth? It may be the former because we don't always recognize or take time for the latter. It's easier to listen to your ego. It's harder to be in a relationship with what atheists are fond of calling our "invisible friend."
