

More Than Hearing Worksheet

Episode: AAdv1x2016

Text: Romans 13:11-14

8 Owe nothing to anyone—except for your obligation to love one another. If you love your neighbor, you will fulfill the requirements of God's law. 9 For the commandments say, "You must not commit adultery. You must not murder. You must not steal. You must not covet." These—and other such commandments—are summed up in this one commandment: "Love your neighbor as yourself." 10 Love does no wrong to others, so love fulfills the requirements of God's law.

11 This is all the more urgent, for you know how late it is; time is running out. Wake up, for our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. 12 The night is almost gone; the day of salvation will soon be here. So remove your dark deeds like dirty clothes, and put on the shining armor of right living. 13 Because we belong to the day, we must live decent lives for all to see. Don't participate in the darkness of wild parties and drunkenness, or in sexual promiscuity and immoral living, or in quarreling and jealousy. 14 Instead, clothe yourself with the presence of the Lord Jesus Christ. And don't let yourself think about ways to indulge your evil desires.

Musical		from Les Mis - "to love another person is to see the face of God"
Natural
People - Interpersonal	We come to realize that perhaps the one whose return comes unexpectedly is precisely the neighbor who encounters us in the street. Perhaps Christ's second coming is this continual return of Christ in and through the neighbor. ~Dirk Lange WP		Playing "Mirror, Mirror" - others are watching our behavior to learn whether Christ is worth anything for real. What they find will determine if they want to mirror or reject what we do.
Self - Intrapersonal	Time is running out - what do you prepare for?	Running around at the last minute purchasing Christmas gifts. ON THE CLOCK.	The next time you prepare to leave the house (for work, or school, or for a trip), ask yourself if you added God
