Episode: BBaptismx2018

Text: Mark 1:4-11

4 John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. 5 And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. 6 Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. 7 He proclaimed, "The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. 8 I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

9 In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. 10 And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. 11 And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

People - Interpersonal		Being baptized in the Spirit means one will be opened to a different reality or at least an awareness that the "powers" ain't gonna like

		you messing with the status quo.          Being baptized in Jesus' name means you are bolstered enough to go up against that displeasure.
Self - Intrapersonal          MWD			This quote from Assumed and Healed by Brian Volck at the Ekklesia Project: “Jesus stands before John to expose and assume all our hidden darkness and heal it – not only our sin but every single guilt gem – whether betrayal, excess, deception, or violence – we carry in memory’s pockets and retrieve at times to start another round of self-flagellation. He frees us from the hopeless project of trying to claim a better past.” Imagine yourself standing next to Jesus in the water, looking up at what he’s seeing and hearing what he’s hearing. As your “guilt gems” are washed downstream, imagine what he does and says - to you.
