Text Daniel 12: 1-3

“At that time Michael, the great prince, the protector of your people, shall arise. There shall be a time of anguish, such as has never occurred since nations first came into existence. But at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who is found written in the book. 2 Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. 3 Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.”

Word - Verbal/Linguistic	The text is specific to something and someone - but we do not know who or what with any degree of certainty.	These verses are like reading a page isolated from a letter, book, or screenplay - we have some very interesting stuff, but without context, we are left puzzled as to meaning.	Play telephone! Show some road signs that don't have immediate context...
Eye - Visual/Spatial D2	“Dust of the earth” = עפר also, ashes or debris - the ruins of a building or place?		There are myriad pictures on the internet of destroyed places on earth. Hurricanes, wildfires, floods, mudslides, earthquakes. Also warfare, traffic accidents, mass shootings. Use with caution. • Pour out some ashes or sand as you talk about the devastation.
Math - Logical/Mathematical
Body - Kinesthetic	Vs 1 - protector; in Hebrew נָתַן to take	Imagine who you would stand over (take a stand)	Invite people to stand as they would imagine

MWD	one's stand	over) - a relative? A child? A vulnerable person? A place? A value? Also some PEOPLE because of inherent relationships and SELF because of identifying one's values	Michael standing. Yoga's mountain pose Or a full sequence of warrior poses!
Musical	Daniel - sorry I had to
Natural D2		Vs. 3 = is the brightness of the sky an allusion to Halley's comet? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Here's an article on how many stars you can see at night. If you have been under a dark sky, bright with stars, describe what it is like. I tend to use words like brilliance, majesty, and glory. What would it take for someone to describe our church with words like that? Where do such attributes in people come from? See also PEOPLE, SELF
People - Interpersonal	Vs 1 - anguish; Hebrew צרה which can also be translated as "rival wife". Talk about anguish! (also adversary, affliction, distress, trouble)	← If we go with the relational nature of this word, the anguish in this passage has a very intimate nature and extremely close location to our lives. Divorce is a very good example. A family torn apart by politics. Running into your significant other's ex.	Vs. 2 - everlasting life vs. everlasting shame/contempt If this awakening is people coming to their senses after a cataclysm, maybe some of them are victims and some of them are responsible for the mayhem. How would they be sorted out?
Self - Intrapersonal	Wise - understanding,		Recall a time in your life

	aware, attentive		when you “wised up”. What were the circumstances? How is your life different for having this new understanding? Is this experience something that you can (or have) share(d) with others to assist them?
