Text: Hebrews 10:11-14 (15-18), 19-25

11 And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. 12 But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, “he sat down at the right hand of God,” 13 and since then has been waiting “until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet.” 14 For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

15 And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, 16 “This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds,” 17 he also adds, “I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.” 18 Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

19 Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, 20 by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), 21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God, 22 let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. 23 Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. 24 And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, 25 not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

		especially noteworthy for the innocent life lost. There has been a lot of imagery on Twitter lately in response to the NRA tweeting for doctors to “stay in their lane” regarding gun policy. The responses from ER doctors has been particularly graphic. One picture showed a table soaked with blood and spattered all over the floor with the caption that the doctors kept the person alive long enough to say goodbye. This is fraught with political jeopardy, but is also a captivating use of shed blood to get our attention.

Self - Intrapersonal		Heart is SO much more than the muscle in our chest cavity. It is the mind, character, inner self, will, intention, center of our being. We approach God's throne of grace with this part of us fully confident that we belong there because Jesus has torn open the veil that separates us from it.

Vss. 11-14

You know the priests stand for service day after day,
Offering the same sacrifice that won't take sin away.
But Christ made his perfect offering once for all time
So God invited him to sit at His right side.
Now Jesus is waiting 'til the bad guys are his footstool
God subdues his enemies, so don't be one of 'em, fool!
By his perfect sacrifice, Christ has perfected us.
Once for all time, he lifted us from the dust.
