

Creative Scripture Reading Activity – Mad Libs Style (Based on Psalm 148; adapted from the NRSV)

*Fill in the blanks with words suggested by the congregation. Ask the congregation to give you the words to use, using the suggestions in the parenthesis.

Praise the Lord! Praise the Lord from the (location)_____; praise him in the (location)_____! Praise him, all his (type of creature)_____; praise him, all his (type of creature)_____! Praise him, (object in space)_____ and (another object in space)_____; praise him, all you (adjective)_____ (objects in space)_____! Praise him, you (adjective)_____ (location)_____, and you (plural noun)_____ above the (same location)_____! Let them praise the name of the Lord, for he commanded and they were created. He established them forever and ever; he fixed their bounds, which cannot be passed.

Praise the Lord from the (location)_____, you (type of sea creature)_____ and all deeps, (noun)_____ and (noun)_____, (noun)_____ and (noun)_____, (adjective)_____ (noun)_____ fulfilling his command! (Geological formation)_____ and all (geological formations)_____, (type of plant)_____ and all (types of plants)_____! (Adjective)_____ animals and all (types of animals)_____, (adjective ending in -ing)_____ things and (adjective ending in -ing)_____ birds! (Plural Noun)_____ of the earth and all (plural noun)_____, (plural noun)_____ and all (plural noun)_____ of the earth! (Adjective)_____ men and women alike, (adjective)_____ and (adjective)_____ together! Let them praise the name of the Lord, for his name alone is exalted; his glory is above earth and heaven. He has raised up a (type of instrument)_____ for his people, praise for all his faithful, for the people of (Nation, State, or Country)_____ who are close to him. Praise the Lord!

From "The Worship Closet"

A Place for Creative Worship Ideas