Text: John 14: 8-17 (25-27)

8 Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.” 9 Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? 10 Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own; but the Father who dwells in me does his works. 11 Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me; but if you do not, then believe me because of the works themselves. 12 Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. 13 I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. 14 If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

15 “If you love me, you will keep my commandments. 16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate, to be with you forever. 17 This is the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, because he abides with you, and he will be in you.

25 “I have said these things to you while I am still with you. 26 But the Advocate,[a] the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. 27 Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

		Pentecost in John is much more earthy (see Natural below), much more walking around, doing stuff https://c1.staticflickr.com/7/6131/5987136656_9313beebbee_z.jpg Whatcha doin? I dunno, Jesus stuffs I guess	This could be intimidating, but have people pair off and simply look at each other. We do this all the time when we converse, but how often do we just look at one another? We may notice things we had never seen before or come to appreciate characteristics we've only given a glance. OR Have people pair off - or get into small groups - and place hands on one another's heads or shoulders and feel the warmth of contact. You might take the time to encourage one another to pray for each other, too, or just to say, "May the Lord bless you."

Natural	Whoever has seen me has seen the Father	Mirrors, genetic code; Avatars (not natural, but...) John v. Acts is less about the big special effects show and more about God getting God's hands dirty, working the soil (inspired by this article by Alan Brehm: http://thewakingdreamer.blogspot.com/2013/05/doin-what-jesus-did.html)	Following on that working the soil part --- Gather seeds of various plants (or pictures of them) and ask if anyone knows what plant will grow out of them. Point out that unless you know what the seed is, you won't know what the plant will grow to be until you put it in the ground and let it grow.

Why this movement, how did they get involved, what was the outcome, etc.... Jesus advocates for us with the Father; who would he advocate for in the world?
Self - Intrapersonal			WWJD - What sort of works would be greater than the ones Jesus did? Do we even think about doing the ones he did, let alone greater ones? No? Why not? Don't believe it? Don't want to? Afraid to succeed?
