Episode: C Ordinary 18x2016

Text: Luke 12:13-21

13 Someone in the crowd said to him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me.” 14 But he said to him, “Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?” 15 And he said to them, “Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one’s life does not consist in the abundance of possessions.”

16 Then he told them a parable: “The land of a rich man produced abundantly. 17 And he thought to himself, ‘What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?’ 18 Then he said, ‘I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. 19 And I will say to my soul, ‘Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.’

20 But God said to him, ‘You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?’ 21 So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God.”

Word - Verbal/Linguistic
Eye - Visual/Spatial		V. 17 - Compare your sanctuary to a barn, for size. Imagine: what you would do if your crowd grew beyond the capacity of your space? Would your first response be to tear the house down and replace it with a bigger one? What other options might there be?
Math - Logical/Mathematical			Use blocks to build a pyramid. Then rebuild it or build another starting from the point and growing outward. It don't work! This is like the man's logic of what to do with his exceeding blessings. It's all backward and upside down!

Body - Kinesthetic
Musical		More, More, More Again, I'm sorry. This vid is soooo baaaad! More, More, More - Clooney 36 Best Songs about Money (Warning: Some have explicit lyrics)
Natural
People - Interpersonal		Vs. 13-14 - Triangling again, like Martha and Mary a couple weeks ago. Jesus again rejects being put in the middle of a sibling argument.
Self - Intrapersonal		2B+B: The kind of covetousness we usually think of is very specific: I want the car my neighbor has. But the more endemic kind is more general: I want more than what is sufficient. Someone asked Andrew Carnegie how much money was enough. He replied, "$2000 more than what you have." (also from 2B+B, otherwise, source unknown)	Invite people to make a list of all the things they put trust in to get by in life: e.g. car, economy, family member, gubmint, own skills, etc. Rank them from 1 to 5 (or 10 if they are ambitious). Where does God fall on the list? CS Lewis said whatever is #1 on the list is your true god. (2B+B)
