Text: Matthew 4:1-11

The Temptation of Jesus

4 Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2 He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. 3 The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” 4 But he answered, “It is written,

‘One does not live by bread alone,
but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

5 Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6 saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written,

‘He will command his angels concerning you,’
and ‘On their hands they will bear you up,
so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’”

7 Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

8 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; 9 and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” 10 Jesus said to him, “Away with you, Satan! for it is written,

‘Worship the Lord your God,
and serve only him.’”

11 Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

After Jesus got baptized by John
The Spirit sent him out of town,
Out into the wilds and wastes,
Where he the tempter soon would face.

He fasted there for forty days.
Then, while he was in hunger's haze,
The tempter came to test his heart
And try to pull his faith apart.

"If you are the Son of God,
Your starving here seems rather odd.
Command these stone to become bread,
And by that power you'll be fed."

"It is written," Jesus said,
"No one merely lives on bread,
But more so by God's very Word. But by God's Word eternal.
So get behind me, evil nerd!" What you suggest is just infernal!"
